Let's work together to transform your operations and build sustainable growth for a brighter future. 🐝 ✨

About Us

In Our Third Edition

Were diving into change management. Focusing on the "Little Things" and the "Bigger Things" is key to balancing immediate wins with long-term growth. The Little Things streamline operations, while the Bigger Things drive transformative change. But here's the catch: without sticking to these improvements, up to 70% of changes can revert back within 12 months. And that's where Stick with the Things comes in, ensuring your progress lasts and drives real, sustainable success.

Stick with the things

Change your thoughts
and you can change
your world

"90% of the opportunity is a people change thing, 10% is the process change itself"

Adding our "Stick with the Things" program is the smartest business efficiency choice you'll make. 🐝 ✨

Empowering people to create value on their own, with the right skills, not only shows the highest respect but also drives the greatest motivation

The challenge? People often don't do this because the skills aren't natural or the benefits known - but that's where we come in. At Business Efficiency Experts, we've helped organisations large and small build these skills with incredible success. Let's make it happen for you too! 🚀

We offer everything you need to supercharge your workforce's engagement and create lasting value:

- Training: From individual tools to full toolkits for business efficiency.
- Coaching: Ongoing support to ensure stickiness for you and your employees.
- Tailored Solutions: Customised to your needs, big or small.

Let's work together to build efficiency that lasts! 🚀 ✨

Stick with the things

Change your thoughts
and you can change
your world

At Business Efficiency Experts, we've had great success with stickiness training, coaching both senior and junior levels.

We've learned that successful change comes from everyone - employees and management, not just leadership. 🐝 ✨

The real winners in business are those who approach every process, job, or task with the mindset that it can be improved.

Our Stickiness Program combines 40+ years of change management expertise into a simple, actionable plan that not only sustains your gains but keeps making them better. 🚀💡

Let us work with you to create the perfect plan to support you and your team, ensuring your business stays efficient, adaptable, and ready for the future. 🚀💡
